

English

Key text(s)

Summer 1: Our Tower:

Literary Theme: Confidence & caution
Main outcome: Extended fantasy narrative

Escape to Pompeii.

Literary Theme: From mystery to discovery
Main outcome: Newspaper report

Summer 2: Cloud Tea Monkeys

Literary Theme: Inspiration & Strength
Main outcome: Non-chronological report

Jim: A Cautionary Tale.

Literary Theme: Confidence & caution
Main outcome: Narrative poem cautionary tale

Art/ DT

Summer 1: Mechanism

- Explain how mechanisms and pneumatic systems create movement and identify examples in everyday life.
- Use drawings and design criteria to develop, build and evaluate a pneumatic model that meets a design brief.

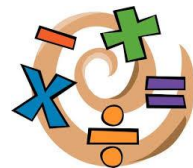

Summer 2: Eating seasonally.

- Understand where different fruits and vegetables grow, how seasons affect availability, and why seasonal eating benefits the environment.
- Prepare and taste foods safely, identify flavours, and design a nutritious seasonal dish.
- Evaluate dishes and give constructive feedback to identify strengths.

Felbridge Primary School Curriculum Overview

Maths

- Mass and capacity
- Fractions B
- Money
- Statistics
- Time
- Shapes

French

Unit 3: On fait la fête (Celebrations)

- Lesson 1: Look at me
- Lesson 2: Happy birthday
- Lesson 3: Party games
- Lesson 4: Come to my party
- Lesson 5: Sports day
- Lesson 6: We are the champions

PE

Athletics, tennis and rounders.

Computing

- Summer 1: Creating media-video trailers.
- Summer 2: Comparison cards databases.

Music

- Creating compositions in response to animation - focusing on tempo and dynamics.

Year group: 3

Summer term 2026

PSHE

- Looking after our world
- Fire station

History

Summer 1:

Ancient Greece

Summer 2: Alexandra The Great

Geography

Summer 1: Volcanoes

Summer 2: Climates and Biomes.

RE

Judaism: This unit explores how Jewish festivals and life-cycle rituals reflect Jewish history, covenant, and beliefs while strengthening community bonds.

Islam:

This unit focuses on Muslim prayer as an act of devotion to Allah that builds unity within the ummah, supported by learning through a mosque visit or virtual experience.